The official B2B service of Paris Air Show!

Aerospace Meetings Paris is an exclusive platform to save time and meet the contacts you want to see at Paris Air Show!

B2B MEETINGS SERVICE:

BCI Aerospace is known for organizing high-quality business meetings at Paris Air Shows, connecting engineering, procurement, supply chain, fabrication, and commodity teams with suppliers and service providers through pre-arranged B2B meetings.

CONFERENCE SESSIONS:

The conference program offers a unique opportunity to find out about the buying policies of large groups and to join the debate.

Who can attend ?

■ DECISION MAKERS / CONTRACTORS

Professionals at the Paris Air Show seeking suppliers or partners include supply chain, procurement, and technical experts, as well as contract manufacturers looking to build new business relationships and find suitable contacts.

■ EXHIBITORS AT PARIS AIR SHOW

Exhibiting companies at the Paris Air Show, especially SMEs seeking contractors, benefit from pre-arranged meetings to find collaborators and connect with buyers.
